

allie & dan

To someone special,

My name is Marshmallow! Allie and Dan have been my humans for a loong time and they are pretty cool. Let me tell you a little bit about them. Allie and her brother grew up in the city. Dan grew up with THREE sisters near the family farm in the country. Everyone thinks I'm a city dog, but sometimes we go to their grandparents' farm and I get to be a real country dog. Allie and Dan met after college at a friend's birthday – SQUIRREL! SQUIRREL! SQUIRREL!!!

Ok. I'm back. The squirrel got away in the yard. Allie and Dan always take good care of me with plenty of love, treats, and long walks. Sometimes we go hiking and stay in warm, comfy cabins. They like to travel to new places and learn new things. While I don't always go with them, it's fun for me because I get to stay with the grandparents. It's nice having family nearby to help out sometimes.

Allie is an accountant. I don't know what that means, but I do love that we get to spend time together when she works from home occasionally. Dan is something called a loller, lau-er, maybe it's a lawyer. Sorry, spelling has always been a little ruff for me. He pets me every morning and I leave fur on his suit so he can remember me.

Ever since my people and I had our first cuddle session, they wanted to adopt a baby without fur. I hope they do soon because we love kids! It would make all of us very happy. Everything would be just perfect, except for that squirrel. Gotta go! He's back!!!
