

Hello!

I wish to tell about our happy Morgan family.

We live in beautiful house in Marion Illinois , also have another big house in Naples, Florida, and dream about a small boy , who can make our life full and every day will give many beautiful moments to our family , life will shine with bright colors, a baby's smile will fill our life with light and warmth. We can not have biological child and we have decide to adapt a child .

I wish to be Mom and my beloved husband wish to be Dad. It is good to hear these worlds" Mom and Dad" from small baby , who for now live in our dream, who we can give all our love, tenderness and care ..

I have a sad story in my life , I had a child in past , my daughter Svetlana ,she died 5 years ago from aplastic anemia. She was 18 years old when she died. We did two bone marrow transplants, but it didn't help. I miss her so much and my heart is full love, and that is what I can give for small baby in my life.

My husband Richard is an Orthopedic surgery, he has 3 adopted kids and 4 biological children from prior marriages. All children have a very good and happy life, the youngest adapted child is 24 years old, he is smiling beautiful boy! All children have a happy good life , The oldest daughter works in NASA, oldest son is a doctor, another children study in university , college and high school, in future they will have a good job!

My husband is a ideal man and Dad , who like children so much and have many good hobbies, aero modeling (he did about 100 different aircrafts ,which decorate our rooms), built a big train country with many trees , mountains, rivers ,mountain waterfalls ,houses and trains , which move on train roads, this place take all second floor in our train house, i call this place - a country " Lilliputian", because there even lives small toy people, who make different job , it is Amazing big place and everything my Richard did by hands and wish to transfer him skills for our son, he is the best Dad for a small boy!

We like to travel and scuba diving, therefore we were in many countries and wish to see more , we will show our son many beautiful places and countries. I am from Ukraine and can speak several languages ,i will teach him and give the opportunity to feel comfortable in any country , he will be boy of the World! My hobbies are making candy bouquets and sewing clothes , I like cooking and sport.

Also we have animals at home, two beautiful kind white dogs ,they with to be good friends for a small boy! Our boy will have a good life in good place, because we wish to do this life for him!

With love ,Richard and Zoia!
